Openest® | Workspaces

IN THE SHRINKING FOOTPRINTS OF
TODAY'S WORKPLACE DESIGNS, PEOPLE
STILL NEED VARIETY AND CHOICE
TO PERFORM THEIR BEST. THEY SEEK INVITING SPACES THAT INSPIRE, ENGAGE,
AND SUPPORT THE WAYS THEY WORK.

Openest

Openest is a collection of lounge furniture and private workspaces, offering adaptable solutions that respond to the ever-evolving nature of work, enticing people to come into the office while making the most of your floorplate.

Welcoming, Inspiring, and Adaptable

Openest designer, Patricia Urquiola, describes the collection as “kind of an oxymoron,” explaining, “At its heart it is a nest, but it’s also open.” Openest creates more intimate places for people to meet and work, yet is readily adaptable to change. The designs mix warmth with flexibility, easily creating more comfort zones that welcome and inspire people when they come in to work.

Dynamic Spaces for Diverse Workstyles

From solitary contemplation to strategic planning, Openest covers the spectrum of activities people do each day, improving efficiency and supporting the diverse ways they work. The collection gracefully blends into the environment to create spaces that are cozy, warm, and inviting—the types of spaces that attract and retain talented workers. Present a look that’s neat and welcoming, while providing a refuge of functional furniture for working or relaxing, focusing or socializing.

Versatile Solutions That Leverage Space

When you're pressured to do more with less space, multi-use, agile products can maximize real estate, while creating the variety people desire in the workplace. Openest helps leverage under-utilized spaces by creating comfortable work zones that people are drawn to. With so many application possibilities, Openest offers a simple solution that makes it easy to divide, configure, or refresh open spaces.

Design Choices

Openest sofas, poufs, booths, tables, and screens come together to create an array of lounge and retreat spaces—wherever work happens. The pieces share a soft look and feel that draw people in, while creating a dynamic landscape of color with options that complement existing surroundings. Choices in rich textiles and finish details add a sense of custom tailoring and fine craftsmanship.
